

Protecting Our Public Rights of Way

Event to be held in Central London (venue TBC) | Tuesday 26 February 2019

10.15	Registration & Morning Refreshments
11.00	Chair's Introduction
11.05	Implementing Government Policy and Looking Ahead to 2026 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Implementing the Deregulation Act: what to expect and how to prepare• Having a comprehensive understanding of the guidance and regulations• Recording, diverting and extinguishing PROW: helping local authorities meet the 2026 cut-off• Working with landowners at an early stage to avoid disagreements• Ensuring a balance between public and private interests• Initiatives to record multi user routes: supporting horse riders and cyclists• Meeting the administrative and legal costs of processing public path orders• Looking ahead to 2026: overcoming the key challenges ⇒ Sarah Slade, National Access Adviser, Country Land & Business Association ⇒ Dr Mhari Barnes, Flood Risk & Access Policy Adviser, National Farmer's Union ⇒ Helen Lynch, Legal Adviser, National Farmer's Union
13.15	Networking Lunch
14.00	Current and Future Good Practice in Recording Public Rights of Way <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Effective partnership working between local authorities, landowners, occupiers and others• Managing PROW application caseloads in the run up to 2026• Successfully using different forms of electronic communications, including electronic definitive maps• Better approaches to planning: recording newly discovered rights of way, dealing with requests for diversions• Latest case law on public rights of way
15.30	Event Close

Event Page | Register Online

For more information contact Customer.Services@westminster-briefing.com | 0207 593 5657