

Improving outcomes for vulnerable offenders in the Criminal Justice System

Etc.venues. One Drummond Gate, Victoria, London, SW1V 2QQ | 24 January 2019

10.15	Registration & Morning Refreshments
11.00	Chair's Introduction - Russell Webster , Independent Criminal Justice Researcher
11.05	Update on the new CSTR scheme and the national landscape <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Results from the 'Community Sentence Treatment Requirements' pilot scheme• Implementing the scheme nationwide• Introducing the steering groups and their composition• Outlining the training to be received by frontline staff• Increasing confidence among sentencers and enhancing public safety• The impact on custodial sentences for offenders with drug, alcohol or mental health problems ⇒ Catherine Pearson, Deputy Director- Vulnerable Offenders Policy Ministry of Justice and Mignon French JP, Programme Manager, Community Sentence Treatment Requirements (CSTR) on behalf of: MOJ, DH, PHE and NHS England ⇒ Anne Fox, Chief Executive Officer, Clinks
13.00	Networking Lunch
13.45	Developing your strategy to support rehabilitation and reduce reoffending <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ensuring a multi-agency approach between justice and clinical health officials• Case studies of successful provision of timely and appropriate support• Examples of effective local partnerships and models for managing vulnerable offenders• Providing above minimum standard of service to offenders and victims ⇒ Vicki Cardwell, Deputy Chief Executive, Revolving Doors Agency ⇒ Professor Raymond Arthur, Professor of Law / Head of Subject (Law), Northumbria Law School ⇒ Salmi Ali, Senior Lecturer & Researcher, Department for Advanced & Integrated Practice, School of Health and Social Care, London South Bank University
15.30	Chair's Summary & Event Close

Please note that all speakers and the agenda are subject to change without notice