

Nursing After Brexit: Breakfast Briefing

To be held in Central London | Friday, 29th September 2017

Background:

The NHS faces a potentially severe shortage of nurses. One in three nurses are set to retire in the next 10 years, while recruitment numbers are dwindling. Meanwhile, over 12,000 nurses in the UK are EU nationals - and this number is dropping sharply. With Brexit fast approaching, what are the potential outcomes for nursing following the UK's exit from the European Union? Most importantly, what can you do to protect your service, your staff and your patients?

Join our Breakfast Briefing on 29 September for an up to date brief on the latest developments for nursing and Brexit. Hear from Dame Donna Kinnair, Director of Nursing at the Royal College of Nursing & The Rt. Hon Lord Andrew Lansley, Former Secretary of State for Health to hear what the potential fallout might be, and what you can do to future-proof your service.
