

The Future for School Nursing

Etc Venues, One Drummond Gate, Victoria | Thursday 22nd November 2018

10.15	Registration & Morning Refreshments
11.00	Chair's Introduction ⇒ Suzanne Watts , Chair of RCN Children and Young People Staying Healthy Forum
11.05	Morning Session: The Future for School Nursing <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The national landscape for school nursing: future opportunities & challenges• Achieving more with less: providing excellent care at a time of financial constraint• Engaging with children and young people• Communicating with your teaching & school colleagues to improve your provision• Safeguarding & your workload: effectively meeting your duties• Commissioning a joined-up approach from early years to adult services• Improving relationships between commissioners and providers• Evidencing excellence: ensuring the right data collection to promote your service ⇒ Maggie Clarke , Assistant Director Universal Services, School and Public Health Nurses Association ⇒ Michael Ter-Berg , Chief Executive Officer, School Screener Marta Kalas , Chief Operating Officer, School Screener ⇒ Ruth Cohen , Public Health Consultant, Healthtap Ltd ⇒ Eve Thrupp , School Nurse, Dudley School Nursing, QNI
13.00	Networking Lunch
13.45	Afternoon Session: Sharing Good Practice <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Examples of successful school nursing provision from across the country• Commissioning and providing an effective, child-centred school nursing service• Using evidence to improve and innovate your service• Supporting your school nursing workforce to overcome the challenges ahead ⇒ Kelley Webb-Martin , Head of Children's Health 0-19 Service, Children and Young People's Services, London Borough of Newham ⇒ Jane Sim , Senior School Nurse, The High School of Glasgow ⇒ Beverley Wheeler , School Nurse Manager, Berkshire Healthcare NHS Trust, QNI
15.30	Chair's Summary & Event Close

Please note that all speakers and the agenda are subject to change without notice