

Tackling Gang Exploitation and Knife Crime

Event to be held in Central London | 15 January 2019

10.15	Registration & Morning Refreshments
11.00	Chair's Introduction
11:10	Morning Keynote Speech <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Recent updates from the All Party Parliamentary Group on Knife Crime</li></ul> ⇒ Kate Osamor MP , Member of Parliament for Edmonton and Officer, APPG on Knife Crime
11.30	Understanding the nature of gang crime and exploitation <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>The prominence of county lines and how to reduce the spread of crime</li><li>Identifying vulnerable young people and the appeal of joining gangs</li><li>Early intervention from primary to secondary education and beyond</li><li>The use of social media in gang crime and protection vulnerable people online</li><li>Examples of effective partnership working to reduce gang violence</li></ul> ⇒ Gavin McKenna , Director, Reach Every Generation ⇒ Further speakers TBC
13.00	Networking Lunch
13.45	Creating a multi-agency approach to tackle knife crime <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>How a public health approach can help prevent the underlying causes of violence</li><li>Using health data to combating knife crime</li><li>Incorporating the awareness of knife crime into education</li><li>The use of stop and search and its effects on the community</li><li>Successful principles of reducing violence locally</li><li>Developing a joined-up approach across local agencies</li><li>Empowering local communities to build resilience and trust</li></ul> ⇒ Chief Inspector Alastair Muir , Deputy Director, Scotland Violence Reduction Unit
15.30	Chair's Summary & Event Close

**Please note that all speakers and the agenda are subject to change without notice**