

Understanding the Direction of Travel: Preparing for the New Ofsted Inspection Framework

Taking place in Central London (Zone 1, Venue TBC) | Tuesday, 30th April 2019

10.15 Registration & Morning Refreshments

11.00 Chair's Introduction & Background

- Outcomes the new inspection framework is trying to achieve
- Timescales and next steps for implementation

11.15 New Inspection Processes

- Trialling no-notice inspections and giving inspectors more time in schools
- Reducing the focus on data
- Ending the routine inspection exemption for Outstanding schools?

12.15 Inspection Framework Judgment Areas: Quality of Education

- Replacing the Teaching, Learning & Assessment and Outcomes judgment areas with a single new Quality of Education one
- Placing greater emphasis on curriculum and giving less weight to exam results
- Ofsted's latest curriculum research, factors linked to curriculum quality, and how they may become indicators to be evaluated against
- What these changes mean for schools and how they can start to prepare

13.15 Networking Lunch

14.00 Inspection Framework Judgment Areas: Leadership & Management, Personal Development and Behaviour & Attitudes

- Leadership & Management and a continued focus on safeguarding
- Splitting the Personal Development, Behaviour & Welfare judgment area into separate Behaviour & Attitudes and Personal Development ones
- Ofsted priorities in these areas and new developments
- What these changes mean for schools and how they can start to prepare

15.30 Chair's Summary & Event Close

Event Page | Register Online

For more information contact Customer.Services@westminster-briefing.com | 020 7593 5657