

#MeToo on Campus Manchester: Next Steps for Universities

The event will take place in Central Manchester | Tuesday 25 June 2019

09.15	Registration and refreshments
10.00	Chair's opening address Chair: Dr Lilia Giugni, Chief Executive Officer, GenPol (event partner) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can education stop abuse?
10.20	Understanding your students before changing the culture: case studies Dr Nina Burrowes, Founder, The Consent Collective <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understanding survivors have a past and a future Recognising abuse in top performers and providing the right support
11.00	Overcoming common failings in the way universities handle misconduct complaints Georgina Calvert-Lee, Senior Litigation Counsel, McAllister Olivarius <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Avoiding over-use of confidentiality Striking the balance between rights of the accused and the complainant Forms of 'justice' and including the complainant in the investigation journey
11.40	Networking and refreshment break
11.50	Transforming the behaviours, attitudes and skills of men and boys Dr Dan Guinness, CEO, Good Lad Initiative <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Delivering evidence-based, pragmatic, relatable interventions Reaching men and boys not typically engaged in conversations about gender Working with groups and individuals of all genders & backgrounds
12.30	The importance of disclosure training and overcoming the challenges associated Speaker to be confirmed <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Best practice in Staff training on student disclosures of sexual assault
13.10	Lunch
14.10	Intersectional issues in sexual misconduct: recognising the complexity of social identities Speaker to be confirmed <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Going beyond the 'system' and taking responsibility back to our communities
14.40	Culture Shift: Report and Support Gemma McCall, Co-founder and Managing Director, Culture Shift <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Report and support: progress and success stories The importance of anonymous reporting
15.20	Establishing a robust plan to combat harassment in your institution Vicki Baars, Strategy and Review Manager – Sexual Harassment, Goldsmiths University <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Overcoming funding challenges and gaining leadership buy-in Proaction, not reaction
16.00	Chair's closing remarks