

Transnational Education in HE: recognising opportunities and growing educational exports

The event will take place in Central London (venue to be announced) | Tuesday 7 May 2019

10.15 Registration & Refreshments

11.00 Chair's Introduction: Glynne Stanfield, Partner, Eversheds Sutherland (International) LLP

11.05 Overview of the TNE Policy Landscape

- Commitments to promote the growth of TNE from the International Education Strategy
 - Maximising education exports: key findings from the DfE report
 - Recognising global opportunities
 - Understanding the QAA TNE Review Handbook: quality assurance in your curriculum
 - Working in partnership: tailoring degree offers to the specific overseas market
 - Establishing meaningful relationships with European partners now and in the future
 - Identifying opportunities to expand campuses abroad
 - Ensuring effective communication between government and education providers
- ⇒ Dr Esther Wilkinson, Head of International, Jisc
- ⇒ Kevin Van-Cauter, Senior Higher Education Adviser, The British Council
- ⇒ Carolyn Campbell OBE, Senior Consultant and Advisory Board member, Observatory on Borderless Higher Education

13.15 Networking Lunch

14.00 Best Practice in Delivering Quality Overseas Programmes

- Transforming a joint programme into a joint institute
 - 'Out of site, out of mind?': ensuring quality and standards for students outside of the UK
 - Best practice in improving the global impact of your institution
 - Implementing the HE Academy TNE toolkit
 - The personal impact of TNE to every learner: ensuring the student voice isn't lost
- ⇒ Katherine Bull, Head of Strategic Insight and Planning, University of London International Programmes
- ⇒ Dr Karen Smith, Principal Lecturer in Collaborative Research and Development, University of Hertfordshire

15.30 Chair's Concluding Remarks & Event Close

Event Page | Register Online

For more information contact Customer.Services@westminster-briefing.com | 020 7593 5657